

PARA Online Community Standards

PARA welcomes your participation in online social media groups and communities. We encourage you to join a conversation, share or simply check out what's happening through our Resident Physician-written Blog, Twitter account, Facebook page and Instagram account. We look forward to hearing from you!

To ensure our online communities are positive and supportive, please take note of our Online Community Standards.

Please avoid:

- Unsolicited promotion of products or services
- Material that violates the privacy of PARA members and patients
- Profane, obscene, threatening, defamatory, slanderous, disrespectful or hurtful language or imagery
- Material that infringes on intellectual property or publication rights
- To protect your privacy, refrain from sharing personally identifiable information such as your location and any identification numbers

PARA reserves the right to:

- Remove any material that it considers objectionable
- Reprint or quote any post along with the name or username of the individual who made the post
- Ban future posts from users who violate these Online Community Standards
- Modify these Online Community Standards at any time
- Be advised that once a post is made to one of PARA's social media venues, it is immediately available to the public. If you do not want your post to be public, do not post it.