

PARA Resident Physician-Initiated Well-being Event – Rural

Application Form

Rural resident physicians represent a small number of the total resident physicians in Alberta who are distributed in smaller towns and cities throughout the province, thus making it difficult to schedule social and wellness events. Rural resident physicians are generally unable to participate in PARA social events due to travel distances and expense. To support resident physician social and well-being activities for rural resident physicians, PARA has allocated funds to support resident-initiated events.
